BURNFREE WORKOUT ONESIES

The fashion-meets-function onesie was originally designed as a unitard to support and protect the skin while students workout on the aerial apparatus, that then folds down into a cute skirt over leggings for that post workout coffee date! Two entirely different outfits in one fabulous set!

BURNFREE BOOTY SHORT ONESIE

With Bra

The BurnFree Booty Short Onesie is a convertible boy- short cut unitard (legs are free) that can be combined with a matching bra and worn up for ballet, yoga, pilates or aerial and/or can be folded down to become a mini-skirt over shorts for pole! Team it with a slouchy sweater or cute T and you're ready for the street!

Available in Red or Black

Motivated by the incredible support the BurnFree Onesie received from the aerial arts, aerial yoga and pole dance community throughout Los Angeles and beyond, Womack and Bowman are so excited to launch the second phase of their BurnFree line! In addition to the BurnFree Onesie for woman complete with bra and/or sleeve top and the BurnFree Unisex Onesie, Womack and Bowman now introduce; The BurnFree Booty Short Onesie and the BurnFree Unisex Convertible Pant!

With Sleeve Top

Mix and match all four sets to create your own BurnFree experience! Try a red Sleeved Top with a BurnFree Unisex Convertible Pant, or perhaps a red Booty Short Onesie with a black Bra? However you decide to team your Womack and Bowman clothing you can rest assured that you will be comfortable, safe and looking fly!

The BurnFree Unisex Convertible Pant is a variation on the Unisex Onesie. In keeping with the Womack and Bowman, fashion meets function theme, these comfy pants have a high waist band that can be worn up for aerial/aerial yoga to protect the midriff from painful burns and folded down to become a cute belt over harem pants for hip-hop class, acrobatics, the café, the airport, or even.....bed!
